Institute Information

The American Association for Health Education (AAHE), in collaboration with the National Association for Sport and Physical Education (NASPE), is hosting its 3rd Annual Faculty Development Institute. The primary purpose of the Institute is to enhance the capacity of colleges and universities in the preparation of teacher candidates.

Institute Objectives

The purposes of the institute are to:

- Update teacher preparation faculty, state education agency personnel and local education agency personnel on the newly revised National Health Education Standards.
- Provide an overview of performance assessments.
- Enhance the capacity of participants to construct and use scoring rubrics for instruction and evaluation.
- Provide a comprehensive training in Physical Best, a practical and ready to use lifelong fitness education resource for educators, and an overview of FITNESSGRAM software.
- Examine how to compile evidence and write a successful report using the AAHE/NCATE and/or NASPE/NCATE standards.

Who Should Attend?

- Health Education Faculty
- Physical Education Teacher Education Faculty
- SEA and LEA Health Education Coordinators

Institute Highlights

This institute will provide 7 workshops that will focus on faculty and staff development in the following areas:

- Creating Professional Development Opportunities for Implementation of the National Health Education Standards, PreK-12
Thursday, September 28, 2006, 8:00 am – 12:00 noon
Workshop Fee: Member $75 Non-member $100
The participants will be trained as trainers for delivering professional development to PreK-12 classroom teachers, local education agency personnel, state education agency personnel and university professional preparation faculty. Participants will receive a book entitled National Health Education Standards: Achieving Excellence.

Institute Highlights, continued.

- Standards-based Health Education & Performance Assessment Workshop

Thursday, September 28, 2006, 1:00 pm – 5:00 pm

Workshop Fee: Member $75 Non-member $100

The workshop will provide health education teacher preparation faculty with the knowledge and skills needed to professionally prepare teachers to effectively use the National Health Education Standards and performance-based assessment to promote health literacy. Faculty are strongly urged to combine this with the Assessments and Scoring Rubrics Development Workshop. The participants will receive a manual on standards-based health education & performance assessment entitled “Health Literacy: Teaching HIV Prevention through Standards-based Health Education & Performance Assessment,” and a CD-ROM which contains PowerPoint presentations, handouts, and overheads.

- Assessments and Scoring Rubrics Development Workshop

Friday, September 29, 2006, 9:00 am – 5:00 pm

Workshop Fee $100

This workshop will assist faculty from both disciplines in constructing assessments and using scoring rubrics and other types of scoring guides for instruction and evaluation. The special focus for this workshop will be writing assessments and rubrics to meet requirements for NCATE program reports.

- Physical Best Health-Fitness Specialist Certification

Friday September 29, 2006, 9:00 am - 5:00 pm

Workshop Fee $150

This workshop will provide comprehensive training in Physical Best, a practical and ready to use lifelong fitness education resource for educators, and an overview of FITNESSGRAM software. Participants will engage in hands on Physical Best activities that teach components and principles of health-related fitness education and with the FITNESSGRAM assessment protocols. All participants will receive the following Physical Best books: Physical Education for Lifelong Fitness: The Physical Best Teacher's Guide, Physical Best Activity Guide, and the FITNESSGRAM Test Administration Manual.

- AAHE/NCATE University Preparation Workshop

Saturday, September 30, 2006, 8:00 am – 5:00 pm

Workshop Fee $100

This workshop will provide guidance to institutions of higher education in preparing a health education program report for AAHE/NCATE review. In addition, the workshop participants will receive training and handouts on the new web-based program report submission and review. Each institution will receive one copy of 2001 Guidelines for AAHE/NCATE Review of Initial Level Programs for Health Education Teacher Preparation, and CD-ROM containing the guidelines document.

- NASPE/NCATE PETE Program Report Preparation Workshop and Reviewer Training – Initial Standards

Saturday, September 30, 8:00 am - 5:00 pm

Workshop Fee $100

This workshop will provide guidance to university physical education teacher preparation programs on preparing an electronic program report for NASPE/NCATE review. The workshop participants will receive training and handouts on the web-based program report submission process at the initial PETE standards level. Each participant will receive handouts and templates to clarify the program report preparation process. All participants will receive materials related to developing evidence, assessments, scoring guides, and collecting data for the electronic program report. This session is complemented by the information provided in the Friday Assessments and Scoring Rubrics Development Workshop. In addition, participants will be trained as electronic program report reviewers in the afternoon and receive in depth instruction related to review for program approval at the initial standards level.

AAHE Sponsors Web-Based Courses

www.HEPnetwork.org

The Health Education and Promotion Network (HEP Network) offers web-based instructional courses in health education and promotion, which are available for graduate credit through the University of Central Arkansas. Eight courses have been developed and are currently available. AAHE is looking for additional university partners to offer the courses and is interested in talking with any institutions in California. Contact James Eddy at jeddy@tamu.edu or Becky Smith at bsmith@aahperd.org for further information.
