

ABOUT THE CALIFORNIA SOCIOLOGY FORUM

THE HISTORY

CSF was initially published in 2007-2008 by Professor Hyojoung Kim. It was re-launched in 2022-2023 by a group of faculty members in the Department of Sociology. CSF expresses its immense appreciation to all editors—both faculty and student—who served as the re-launching editorial board.

THE MISSION

The California Sociology Forum (CSF) is a student-run online journal that publishes scholarly and creative works of students enrolled in the Sociology program or taking Sociology classes at Cal State LA at both the undergraduate and graduate level. It is committed to cultivating student research, supporting intellectual exchange, and featuring diverse perspectives on various issues of our society and world. Students are strongly encouraged to submit not only original research papers, but creative works such as poems, cartoons, music, pictorial essays, personal essays, and fieldwork notes that use the sociological imagination, as well as sociologically relevant book and film reviews. As we continue to grow, we welcome new additions to our editorial board. Please feel free to reach out to us!

CSF 2022-2023 Editorial Board

Volume 5 was edited and published by the following editorial board. Their innovations have left indelible marks on the publication. Not only were Creative Works, Book Review, and Film Review sections added, but the board created a brand-new Open Journal website in addition to the first print volume. This scope of work far exceeds what will be expected of future editorial boards. CSF is indebted to them for these re-launch efforts.
