

ABOUT THE CALIFORNIA SOCIOLOGY FORUM

THE HISTORY

CSF was initially published in 2007-2008 by Professor Hyojoung Kim. It was re-launched in 2022-2023 by a group of faculty members in the Department of Sociology. CSF expresses its immense appreciation to all editors—both faculty and student—who have served on the editorial board through all its iterations.

THE MISSION

The California Sociology Forum (CSF) is a student-run online journal that publishes scholarly and creative works of students enrolled in the Sociology program or taking Sociology classes at Cal State LA at both the undergraduate and graduate level. It is committed to cultivating student research, supporting intellectual exchange, and featuring diverse perspectives on various issues of our society and world. Students are strongly encouraged to submit not only original research papers, but creative works such as poems, cartoons, music, pictorial essays, personal essays, and fieldwork notes that use the sociological imagination, as well as sociologically relevant book and film reviews. As we continue to grow, we welcome new additions to our editorial board. Please feel free to reach out to us!

CSF 2023-2024 Editorial Board

Volume 6 was reviewed, promoted, edited, uploaded, and published by the following editorial board. Their innovations have continued the endeavors of CSF for sociological relevance. For this publication, previously established sections were expanded even further, to Research subsections for Articles, Essays, Theoretical Framework, & Theses; Creative Works subsections for Cover Image Art, Multimedia Poems, & Zines; and Reviews subsections for not only Books & Films but also Video Games Adapted into Film & Music! The pieces in the Reviews were mainly contributions from the ever-evolving editorial student board sub-team of Media Reviews and Original Content Creations.
