

Taste Buds

AA Wings

A magical high if you just take a bite,
or a yummy snack before the sky loses its light.
Some don't like me, but some do. They say, "we want more."
But if only they knew where I grew, they'd never ask for more to chew.
From the dirt, next to the mealworms and tasty critters.

A flower's uglier cousin.
A fun guy, but never anyone's usual preference.
Instead, I'm here for the outcasts and wanderers. What version of me do you prefer?
